Welcome to the 50-year celebration of our International Exhibit!

This year has been a new experience with historic obstacles. My compliments and gratitude to all who have shown amazing resourcefulness and determination in order to present these beautiful works of art to the public.

There are many members and volunteers who deserve recognition for their exceptional energy and teamwork;

Monica Bishara, our Treasurer, who coordinated two timelines this year in order to keep open the possibility of a live show and her expertise in presenting the entries and awards on our web page in keeping with the original scheduled dates.

Louise Hansen who worked with an accelerated timeline to produce this stunning catalog and to facilitate the online version.

Annie Strack who manages the LWS facebook page for her announcements and images of the award-winning paintings.

Joette LeBlanc our exhibit chairperson and Jan Wilken, co-chair who together managed arrangements with Place St. Charles, award sponsors and handled correspondence with entrants.

Installation Chair, Kathy Stone, Reception committee Rita Congemi and Diane Newman and all of our Board and committee members who were prepared and determined to go live if possible.

We are privileged to have Z.L. Feng as Judge and Juror of this exhibit. He has chosen works that reflect strong use of color as well as skill in design, texture and mood, together with a few that reveal a bit of whimsy.

LWS welcomes four new LWS signature members this year; Ann Hart LWS, Kathy Kitz LWS, Yan Liang LWS, Joye Moon LWS, and two who achieved LWS Master Signature Status; Bev Jozwiak LWS-M and Birgit O’Conner LWS-M

Thank you to all of the exceptionally talented artist who participated and congratulations to those accepted and to the Award Winners.

I hope you enjoy this catalog that celebrates our exciting 50th International Exhibit and is the culmination of our determination to present the best of watercolor talent worldwide.

Wishing you good health,

Claudia LeJeune
President
I would like to thank the Louisiana watercolor Society for the great honor of judging the 50th Annual International Exhibition.

Congratulations to those who submitted works for the show. The hundreds of entries were compelling to view and certainly made my job difficult! The exhibition will astonish you with its versatility. This is of course, what watercolor is known for—it has quite the reputation of being ever-changing and multiplicities. What a privilege it has been to take time to review each piece before my final choices and to bear witness to how these artist have stretched the contours of watercolor. For as long as I’ve have been painting, I am in awe to be familiar, yet unfamiliar, with how watercolor is used. And that is the beauty of the work I saw. Ultimately, those who adapted from the basic principles, techniques, and elements of art rose above the rest.

The 2020 LWS International demonstrates the strength and diversity of this exciting medium we all share.

Thanks to all the entrants and thanks to the LWS exhibition committee for spectacular slate of works that I have no doubt others will enjoy.

Z.L. Feng AWS, NWS
Starting in art school and all thru my early years as an illustrator I was encouraged to paint in many different mediums and styles. I tried them all but, in the end, I settled on watercolor. The spontaneity and flow just fit my personality and style. What I look for and strive to achieve can only be expressed in this wonderful medium. One of the things asked of the artist is to define what inspires them to do what they do. After giving it some thought, the one thing comes to mind before anything else is the play of sunlight, indoors or out, which defines and creates a mood.
